Top Emergency Medicine Physicians Join Hospital Physician Partners Leadership Team

Hollywood, Florida, November 23, 2011 – Hospital Physician Partners, one of the nation's leading Emergency Medicine management and staffing companies, recently added two new Emergency Medicine physicians to their clinical leadership team. The move comes in response to continued growth in Hospital Physician Partners Emergency Medicine management business line. Dr. Jennifer Host and Dr. Lance Wilson are now part of a 12-member clinical leadership team responsible for the management of over 130 hospital-based medical practices nationwide.

Dr. Host joined Hospital Physician Partners as a hospital Medical Director in Georgia in 2007 after returning from Afghanistan having served in the U.S. Army. A practicing board certified Emergency Medicine physician since 2000, Dr. Host attended medical school at Rutgers Medical School and completed her residency at St. Lukes Roosevelt Medical Center in New York. Dr. Host now serves as Vice President of Medical Affairs with primary responsibility for Georgia where Hospital Physician Partners maintains nine Emergency Medicine management contracts.

Dr. Wilson has been an Emergency Medicine Physician in Albuquerque, New Mexico since 2001 and was voted "Top Doc" in Emergency Medicine in Albuquerque by his medical peers this past spring. Dr. Wilson initially joined Hospital Physician Partners in 2008 as Medical Director of the Lovelace Medical Center in New Mexico. His recent promotion to Vice President of Medical Affairs includes clinical management of four Albuquerque emergency departments managed and staffed by Hospital Physician Partners providers.

"We are fortunate to work with such professionals, not only clinically but also administratively," said Dr. David Schillinger, Hospital Physician Partners President and Chief Medical Officer. "Dr. Host and Dr. Wilson demonstrated their outstanding leadership as Medical Directors so it was an easy decision to expand their role within the Hospital Physician Partners team." Currently, Hospital Physician Partners provides Emergency Medicine jobs and Hospitalist jobs for more than 1,500 clinical providers nationwide, treating approximately two million patients a year.
